PARTY TIME:

IT WOULDN'T BE Christmas without Mr. and Mrs. William P. MacCracken's Yuletide "at home." And it WAS Christmas.

Early-birds for eggnog jammed the 11 a. m. to 2 p. m. annual fest on December 25 at the MacCrackens' residence on Benton place. High point of the party was around high noon.

AUSTRALIAN Ambassador Spencer said Saturday's weather—a fine sunny thaw—was just the kind he liked for Christmas.

Still more glimpsed at the mid-day greeting were Mrs. Millard Tydings (she was dashing on to a family dinner); former Ambassador and Mrs. Myron Cowen, Mrs. Thompson Montgomery, Mrs. Harold Walker and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. "Chip" Robert; the Fletcher Plumleys, Mr. and Mrs. James Howard Purdy, Mrs. McCeney Werlich and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Werlich.

The British Ambassador and Lady Makins were there; so were Dr. and Mrs. William Morgan, Mrs. Davies Fitch, Mrs. Paul Bastedo, Fred Roy, Col. and Mrs. J. Hunter Drum, Judge and Mrs. Clarence Norton Goodwin, Dr. and Mrs. Irving Brotman, Mrs. D. Buchanan Merryman, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Blake and scores and scores more.
